

MURIEL

Muriel did not have her knee operation as anticipated due to an infection on her toe. This has now been dealt with and Muriel awaits a new date for the operation on her knee.

Chelsea, continues to improve in the unit in Chester and is able to come home every fortnight. Thank the Lord for her progress.

TRUSTEES

We regret to say that Jonathan Aldersley has decided to withdraw from the Trustees because of the pressure of other commitments. We have greatly valued Jonathan's expertise over the last six years, especially in legal matters and we are grateful for his offer to continue to help us in this capacity.

We are looking for suitable people to join us as Trustees and as local representatives for Emmaus. If this is a work you believe you could do for the Lord please contact us.

Daily Prayer Guide

Sunday

Give thanks to the Lord for His evident goodness to us as we seek to carry the work forward.

Monday

Pray for Emmaus worldwide, that the Lord will bless the many students who are studying His word, often in difficult circumstances.

Tuesday

Pray for those studying the courses in prison that their circumstances may be used of God to bring about spiritual blessing.

Wednesday

Continue to pray for the spread of the work in the UK, that in these last times there may be an increased interest in the study of the scriptures.

Thursday

Pray that Muriel's treatment will be successful and that the operation on her knee will result in her being able to walk much better than at present.

Friday

Pray that the Lord will raise up suitable trustees and local representatives to help further the work.

Saturday

Pray for wisdom for those who mark the courses and correspond with students, often dealing with difficult issues.

"I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live. And whoever lives and believes in me shall never die" John 11.25/26

There is a wonderful parallel between John ch11 and 1 Thessalonians 4, vs 13-18. In fact, the death and resurrection of Lazarus gives us a foretaste of the truth, revealed to Paul, concerning the coming of the Lord Jesus for His own.

It was while the Lord was absent that Lazarus died. Martha said, "Lord if you had been here my brother would not have died". But when the Lord came, Lazarus was awakened out of sleep, that is, he was raised to life again. Likewise before the return of the Lord Jesus many believers die or "sleep through Jesus", but as soon as He comes back, "the dead, in Christ will rise first".

The statement of the Lord Jesus, "He who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live", will be true of all believers who have died prior to the Lord's return. The statement, "whoever lives and believes in me shall never die", will be true of all believers who are alive at the moment of the Lord's return.

Death will be defeated by those who have died; death will be denied by those who are alive. 'What a day, glorious day, that will be'.

BIBLE TEACHING

We have put an audio Bible Teaching message on our website as another, possible 'arm' to our ministry. This is only an experimental step and we would like to have your feedback as to whether this form of teaching meets a need and could, therefore, be expanded.

COMMENTS FROM STUDENTS

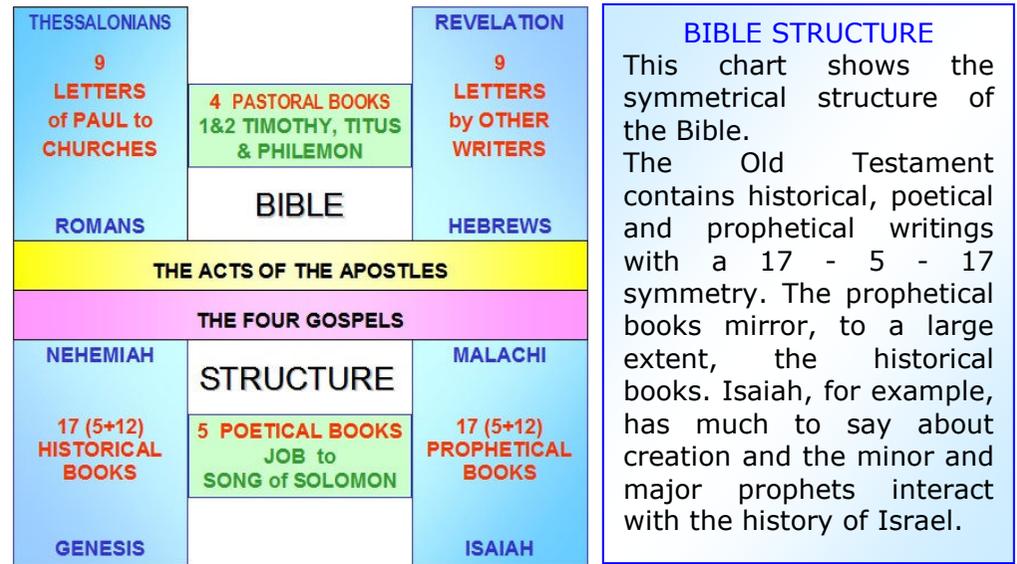

Emmaus Centre (Newcastle) '... with a thankful heart I can boldly confess how your lessons have been of great blessing to my Christian life. Amazingly things that I use not to understand have all been made clear such that I can help others to the glory of Jesus Christ. [Romans] has been the most touching lesson so far [in my EBS studies]. It has actually "split" into pieces blocks of things that were very difficult for me to understand - I have been blessed so, so much. Please I am very grateful ...'

Herve (Sweden) 'At doing this course, I can say that God answer my prayer. Because before I just read a Bible and tried to understand what I can. But one day I asked God that I wanted to learn the Bible. I asked Him to teach me Bible. Some days after I got connection to ECS study course. So I thank God to connect me at knowing what He teach us in Bible. I'm very happy at doing this course.'

Stephen (Plymouth) 'I think probably it has helped me to understand more about the order of future events and that inspires me to always be ready, looking up!!'

John (Newport) 'Yes, I can look back and see how God has taken me through many things to be where I am at present in His will. At 74 years of age I still am going on for God.'

Guy (Online Course - Travelling Through Time) 'I look forward to more as I find them very interesting and thought provoking.'

BIBLE STRUCTURE

This chart shows the symmetrical structure of the Bible. The Old Testament contains historical, poetical and prophetic writings with a 17 - 5 - 17 symmetry. The prophetic books mirror, to a large extent, the historical books. Isaiah, for example, has much to say about creation and the minor and major prophets interact with the history of Israel.

The first five of the two seventeens contain the Pentateuch and the Major Prophets respectively. The two major sections are also linked by the poetical books.

The four Gospels present the fulfilment, or capstone, of the Old Testament and also establish the foundation for the New Testament.

The Acts of the Apostles stems from the Gospels and the rest of the New Testament is built on this double foundation.

A symmetry of 9 - 4 - 9 is seen in Paul's letters, the general letters and the link of the pastoral letters between these two.

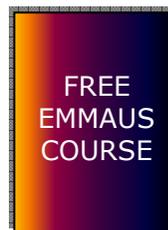

The books of Romans and Hebrews both expound the great truths of the gospel, and Thessalonians and Revelation speak of end times.
